Shutter Project - Ashes into Beauty

Dearne Community
Arts' Festival

Dearne Community Arts' Festival's community art project for 2024 is painting shop shutters along the main road in Goldthorpe to bring colour and vibrancy to the area.

"Shutters may be a necessary part of protection these days, but they don't have to be uniformly drab and grey," said Julie Turner, DCAF secretary.

Artist Jayde Bell (Eye Violet) is certainly bestowing beauty instead of ashes as she brings dancing scissors, butterflies and cows to local shops.

Funded by the Snap Tin Community Hub, the shutters are a great way of bringing positive vibes and leaving a legacy of colour to the town.

Forest School

Thank you to everyone who attended the Forest School sessions that we funded over the summer holidays. They were well received and enjoyed by those that attended. Unfortunately, the places were filled quicker than we could have anticipated but we hope to provide the sessions again next year so please keep an eye on our Facebook page for when booking goes live.
